Your House is on Fire!

This may be the warning cry heard by you some night, or possibly on your return home some day you may find your buildings and valuable papers, etc., in ashes. We ask you candidly if you can afford to take this risk. Would it be economy and businesslike to take this risk when by investing a very few dollars in a Victor Safe you can rest assured that in case of fire the contents of the safe will be saved?

THE VICTOR SAFE & LOCK CO. of Cincinnati, Ohio, are the largest manufacturers of Fire and Burglar Proof Safes in the world. They manufacture all sizes from the smallest to the largest, and guarantee every safe. More than 120,000 are now in use, over 1000 have stood the severest fire tests and not one has ever disappointed its owner.
When you purchase a safe you want a safe one, you can make no mistake if you get a Victor. Uncle Sam is an extensive patron; the new U. S. building at Washington is furnished throughout with Victor safes. This Co. also manufactures a splendid line of Office Desks and Chairs. I can save you several dollars on the purchase price of these goods.
A postal card addressed to me at No. Hyde Park, Vt., will bring you complete discussions and prices.
Yours for prudence and economy.
O. V. MOSELEY, No. Hyde Park, P. S.—If any agent tells you the Victor Safe is not fire proof and makes any slanderous statement regarding the Victor Co., just get him to put such statement in black and white over the signature of the Co. he is agent for and we will pay you for your trouble.

P. A. COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Thirty-fourth Successful Graduation from this Popular Institute.

The commencement week of People's Academy, making the thirty-fourth successful graduation, began Sunday evening, when the baccalaureate sermon was delivered before the graduating class by Rev. C. C. St. Clare at the Congregational church. The auditorium was filled to the doors and every seat in the vestry was also taken. The front of the church was beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and plants, the color scheme in the decorations embracing as far as possible the class colors of green and white. In the center of a bank of flowers was the class motto, Ad Astra Per Aspera, "To the stars through difficulties." The class was ushered from the church parlors by Class Marshall, Charles Tinker, to seats reserved in the center of the church, the class march being played by Miss Mary Watts.

The service was opened by responsive reading conducted by Rev. C. C.
St. Clare, followed by an anthem, rendered by the mixed quartet of the Cong'l church, consisting of Messrs.
Fleetwood and Camp, Mrs. H. C. Fisk and Mrs. P. G. Hill. Rev. Dr. Booth read the scripture lesson. Prayer was offered by Rev. P. A. Smith of the M. E. church. Rev. C. C. St. Clare took his text from First Timothy 4:16, "Take heed unto thyself." The speaker put special emphasis on the three verbs of life, "To have, to do, and to be." The sermon was an especially strong one and held the close attention of the large audience as well as that of the class. Following the sermon Mr. Fleetwood and Mrs. Hill rendered the duet, "Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee," by Schencker.
The rendition was especially fine and much enjoyed.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Geo. N. Kellogg.

PRIZE SPEAKING.

The prize speaking contest, open to all students of the Academy, was held at Academy hall Monday evening. This contest is made possible each year by the offer of prizes by Benjamin H. Sanborn, the well-known publisher of Boston, a native of Morrisville and former student at the Academy. The rendering of the different numbers on the program showed careful preparation and did credit to the participants and to the school.

The prizes were awarded as follows: Mollie Andrews, first prize, which was a handsome Webster's Dictionary; Harold Fisher, second prize, a volume of Tennyson's Poems and the third prize was awarded Winnie Towne and was also a book of poems.
A committee of three, consisting of F. G. Fleetwood, Rev. P. A. Smith and Prof. Henderson of Lamoille Central Academy at Hyde Park, awarded the prizes. In making announcement of the winners, Mr. Fleet-

ALUMNI BUSINESS MEETING.

The business meeting of the Alumni was called to order at 3:30 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon at the Academy, by Vice-President, Frank L. Cheney.
In the absence of President, W. M.
Sargent. Reports were given by the Secretary and Treasurer and remarks were made by Prof. Beebe in regard to the increased interest manifest in the Alumni. The officers elected were, President, J. A. Robinson; Vice-President, Charles W. Tinker; Secretary, Mira Rogers Heath; Treasurer, Mrs.
W. M. Sargent; Executive Committee, L. M. Munson, Clara Carpenter, Lydia Atchinson; Trustee of Alumni property, H. A. Slayton.

ALUMNI BANQUET.

One of the most pleasant features of Commencement week is the Alumni Banquet and this year was no exception. Last evening about one hundred members with invited friends met in the parlors of Hotel Randall, where a most enjoyable time was had by the members once more meeting each other and talking over the happy days of by-gone years, when they were about to sever their connections with People's Academy. A short musical program was given consisting of a vocal solo by Lillian Fisk, who sang "The World is Mine" in a most pleasing manner. Miss Watts rendered a piano solo, which was much appreciated by those present.

Mrs. Philo G. Hill, who is always welcome at such gatherings, sang "September" by Phareton, in her usual pleasing manner, she received a hearty encore to which she responded by singing "Don't You Cry My Honey."

At about ten o'clock the doors of the dining room were opened and the company marched in to partake of one of Miss Host Randall's most elaborate banquets. After the dainty things had been partaken of, W. M.
Sargent, President of the Alumni called the meeting to order and in a few well chosen words introduced the Toastmaster of the evening, the Hon. M. S. Stone. Mr. Stone is always welcome here and the alumni are to be congratulated upon securing him for the occasion. The first speaker on the program was Rev. I.
P. Booth, who gave a most interesting talk on "A Quarter of a Century of Educational Progress." Dr. Booth has been actively engaged in educational work for the past quarter of a century and his remarks were very much enjoyed by all.

The Graduating Class of 1904 were all present with the exception of one, Miss Belle Barrows, who was detained by illness, and in response to the toast "The Class" Charles W. Tinker responded, handling his subject in a very acceptable manner. M. G. Morse, Hardwick, was expected to be present to speak on "The score card of the race, Our Statute Book," but was unavoidably detained and Mrs. Addie Edwards Paris took his place and responded to the toast "Woman." Her remarks were to the point and received with applause. I. N. LeBaron, one of the oldest members present, spoke in regard to the school in the years when he was a boy.

Levi Munson gave a very scholarly address on "The Tool, The Machine, The Man." The last speaker of the evening was Hon. G. M. Powers. His subject was, "The Young Man, his Qualifications and his Opportunities." Mr. Powers' speech was a gem and was a fitting close to this part of the program. After the singing of America, the gathering adjourned and all departed for their homes feeling that the evening had been a most happy and profitable one.
